

1 the Mother Hubbard in 10.01, one of the provisions of this 2 Constitution is that the old Constitution will go out of 3 effect. It in fact avoids those rights, which is not 4 what the Committee of the Whole intended.

5 There is no difficulty with getting a clause in 6 which it conflicts with the present Constitution, because you 7 already have in lines 10 and 11, insofar as it is not in 8 conflict with this Constitution, so that clears out anything
9 that would be in conflict.

10 This simply provides that any rights which are 11 not specifically provided in the schedule of transitional 12 legislation will nevertheless continue under the 13 Mother Hubbard.

14 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Penniman, do you wish
15 to comment on this proposed amendment?

16 DELEGATE PENNIMAN: We did it as it came to us.

17 As you will note, we made no changes. I confess 18 that I am not sure what has been added, and perhaps this is 19 a question that Delegate Boyer might wish to address himself 20 to.

21 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Boyer, will you yield?
